“Photograph what makes you happy.”

Sean Tucker

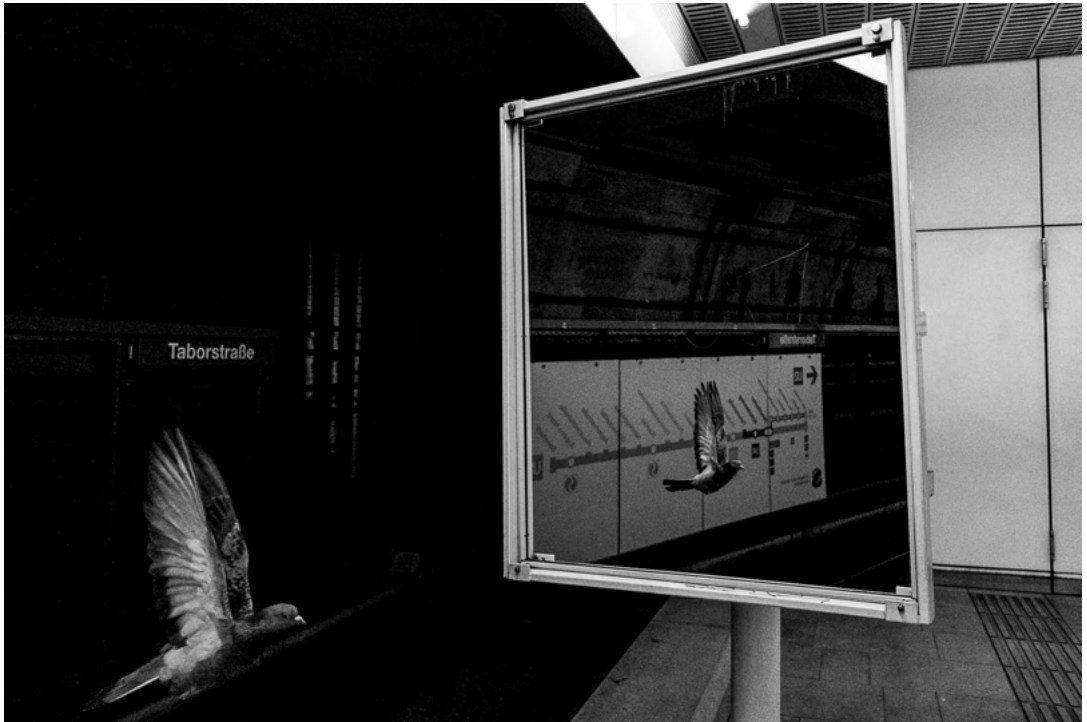

“As you become more sensitive to the way photography works, and to your own instincts, you will enlarge your emotional and visual capacity, and that will allow you to see your world in a richer, more complex way.”

Joel Meyerowitz

“There is a creative fraction of a second when you are taking a picture. Your eye must see a composition or an expression that life itself offers you, and you must know with intuition when to click the camera. That is the moment the photographer is creative. Oop! The Moment! Once you miss it, it is gone forever.”

Henri Cartier-Bresson

“To me, photography is an art of observation. It’s about finding something interesting in an ordinary place... I’ve found it has little to do with the things you see and everything to do with the way you see them.”

Elliott Erwitt

“I photograph to find out what something will look like photographed.”

Garry Winogrand

“Street Photography is boots on the ground. It’s time on the pavement, hours on the pavement.”

Melissa O’Shaughnessy

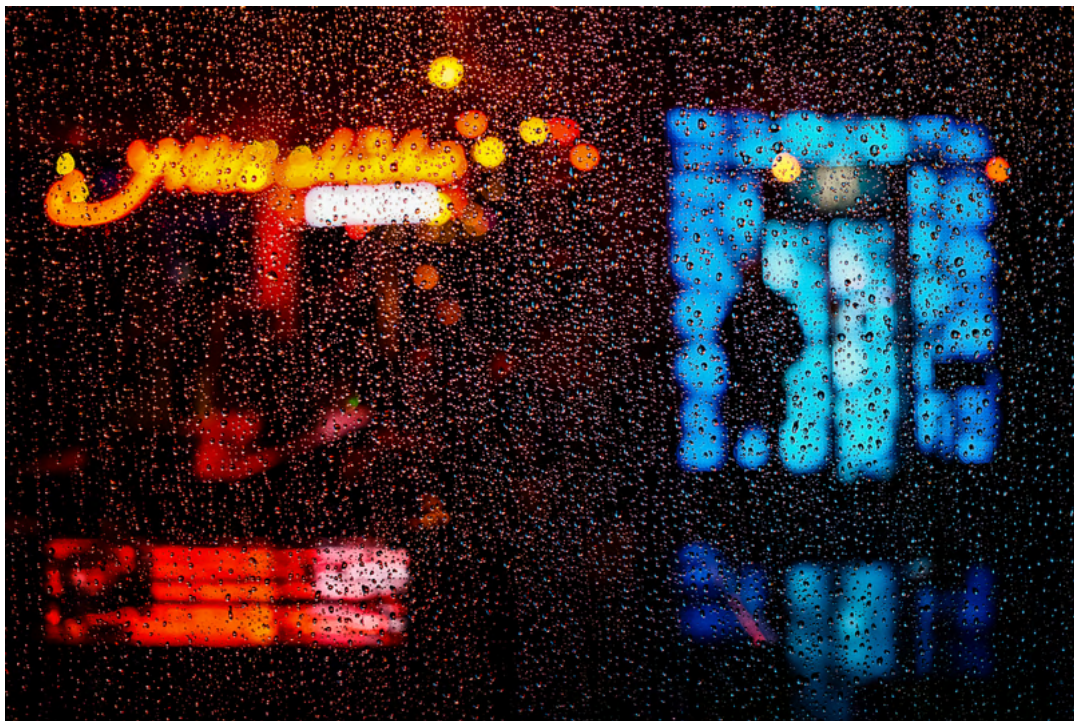

“A window covered with raindrops interests me more than a photograph of a famous person.”

Saul Leiter
